

Don't Let the Pigeon Drive the Bus by Mo Willems

Activity 1:

The book uses 3 different types of punctuation; full stops, question marks and exclamation marks.

Look at this page from the story and decide which punctuation mark each sentence needs, full stop . , question mark ? , or exclamation mark ! ? Answers on the next page so no peeking!

Answers:

Sometimes there can be more than one correct answer. Sometimes it can be hard to decide between a full stop or an exclamation mark depending on how it is said.

Activity 2:

Make up your own comic strip in the style of the page you have just looked at. Instead of being a pigeon, change the character. The character could be you trying to persuade your parents to do something, for example, buy you a new toy, let you stay up late or give you a day off from home learning!

Use the template on the next page or make up your own. Draw a picture in each box and write a sentence in the speech bubble. Try to include sentences with full stops, question marks and exclamation marks.
